

FCC: I find it disgusting and a threat to our democratic election process that Sinclair Broadcasting is planning on using the public airways (for which they pay nothing) to defame and slander Senator John Kerry just days before the Presidential election. This threat to the democratic process is surely enough to make the FCC outraged as well. Your job is to protect our airways from this type of abuse. Please take appropriate actions of imposing fines that hurt, or placing restrictions on their license. Thank you